Problem Seems:	Non Location Dependent
Narrative:	Had radio on ch.14, scanning ch.3. Disp. gave out an "Entry in Progress" at [redacted] on ch.3. When she was talking, the transmission cut-off after she said [redacted]. The ch.14 dispatcher then gave out the same assignment and her transmission cut-off after she said "[redacted]". The radio did not beep to indicate it was switching from ch.3 to ch.14, and there was several seconds between the time when the ch.3 dispatcher gave out the assignment and when the ch.124 disp. stated hers. Sq. 914 came over in ch.14 and told dispatch that the street name kept getting cut-off. She then said [redacted] and we knew where to resp[ond] to.
