Narrative: I'm a bicycle officer assigned to D5. While putting my bicycle away in the basement after my shift I tried to secure over the radio and got the three beeps. I walked all over the basement and tried to transmit, but only got the three beeps. I then decided to walk upstairs and attempt to secure and finally was able to get the air. This has happened before inside of the school while monitoring basketball games and other events. The reception inside the school is spotty at best, someplaces I can hear and transmit but other places inside the school I can't hear or transmit anything at all.
